

In this November Issue

November 2008

LAX Traveler Services

- LAX Encourages Use of Cell Phone Waiting Lot, Announces New reLAX Lounge
- LAX FlyAway Wins Innovative Transportation Solutions Award
- Mayor Villaraigosa Unveils Vision Design Concepts for LAX's Bradley West and Midfield Concourse Projects
- American Airlines Introduces Paperless Boarding Passes for Use With Mobile Phones, PDAs
- TSA Family Lanes Expands at LAX

Air Service News

- Virgin America Relocates Dec. 3 to Terminal 3
- Virgin America Announces Additional Flights to Dulles to Meet Demand for Presidential Inauguration

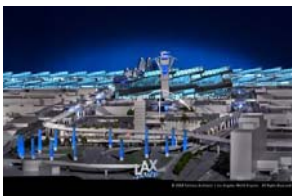

LAX Traveler Services

LAX Encourages Use of Cell Phone Waiting Lot, Announces New reLAX Lounge
Passenger volumes at Los Angeles International Airport (LAX) and LA/Ontario International Airport (ONT) are expected to be less this Thanksgiving holiday travel season. Airlines are offering fewer seats and flights this holiday period compared to last year, as they adjust their flight schedules due to higher costs and fewer reservations. For more information, click on <http://www.lawa.org/PopUpNews.cfm?newsID=1090>, for directions to the Cell Phone Waiting Lot click on <http://www.lawa.org/welcomeLAX.cfm?id=64&terms=cell>

LAX FlyAway Wins Innovative Transportation Solutions Award
The LAX FlyAway Non-stop Airporter Bus Program received the first Innovative Transportation Solutions Award from the Women's Transportation Seminar – Los Angeles Chapter. The award recognizes the program's contributions to improving the quality of life for users and the community. For more information, click on <http://www.lawa.org/PopUpNews.cfm?newsID=1085>

Mayor Villaraigosa Unveils Vision Design Concepts for LAX's Bradley West and Midfield Concourse Project

Los Angeles Mayor Antonio R. Villaraigosa, joined by City Councilmembers Janice Hahn and Bill Rosendahl and airport officials, unveiled architectural vision design concepts for the west side of the Tom Bradley International Terminal and a new midfield concourse at Los Angeles International Airport (LAX). For more information, click on <http://www.lawa.org/PopUpNews.cfm?newsID=1089>

American Airlines Introduces Paperless Boarding Passes for Use With Mobile Phones, PDAs

American Airlines customers departing from LAX and other selected airports can choose to receive their boarding passes electronically on their mobile phones or PDAs, saving the time it takes to print out and present a paper boarding pass at the airport. For more information, click

http://www.aa.com/content/amrcorp/pressReleases/2008_11/13_barcode.jhtml

TSA Family Lanes Expands at LAX

The Transportation Security Administration is expanding "family lanes" at LAX airport checkpoints this Thanksgiving holiday to ease stress for parents traveling with children. The family lanes, which often feature assistants to help parents, will be open at 533 checkpoints in every large and midsize airport when millions of inexperienced travelers are taking to the skies. For more information, click on http://www.usatoday.com/travel/flights/2008-11-09-family-lanes_N.htm

Air Service News

Virgin America Will Relocate on Dec. 3 to Terminal 3

Virgin America will relocate its operations effective Dec. 3 to Terminal 3 at LAX. Terminal 3 is located between Terminal 2 and the Tom Bradley International Terminal. Visit the LAX page at www.lawa.org and click Airline Maps to see the new location.

Virgin America Announces Additional Flights to Dulles to Meet Demand for Presidential Inauguration

Virgin America announced it will add more flights to and from Washington, Dulles (IAD) to meet the rise in demand for travel to the presidential inaugural activities the week of January 20, 2009. In the spirit of the season, Virgin America is also sponsoring students from the KIPP Academy of Opportunity in South Los Angeles for a once-in-a-lifetime journey to visit the nation's capital for the inaugural week festivities. For more information, click on http://www.virginamerica.com/va/press/2008/Nov/Virgin_America_Adds_Daily_Flights.html

LAX
Los Angeles World Airports

Please send newsletter comments, inquiries and suggestions to:

LAX Public Relations Division
Attn: Editorial Assistant
One World Way, Room 109
Los Angeles CA 90045

Phone: (310) 646-5260
Fax: (310) 646-1894
To subscribe or unsubscribe
to the LAX Connection, email: laxconnection@lawa.org