Each of the drawings on this insert show the planned seating layout in both the new North and South Concourses as well as Gate 148 which will be located in the new Central Core. The illustrations also provide a good visualization of the other elements including the pattern of the terrazzo flooring, location of concessions, gate podiums, restrooms and the moving walkways. The seating will consist of traditional in-line seating and more free flowing, pod style seating mixed with locations for recharging electrical equipment. Examples of the seating pods are shown in the pictures below.
