The FORCE Arrives at LAX

T. Lawrence (LAWA)

On December 15th, to celebrate the premier of Star Wars: The Force Awakens, All Nippon Airways brought in their special R2-D2 painted Dreamliner.

The following day, with much media and airport excitement, the cast and crew departed LAX for the London premier.

Central Terminal Area 5

North Terminals Update—T1, T2, & T3

Terminal 1

Terminal 1 is progressing towards their planned barricade switch from west to east on the ticketing and arrivals level. The planned date is mid February and you will see the new check-in area and new arrival carousels open. The new Sky Cap area to the far west will be opening at a later date.

Inside the concourse, Brookstone, I love LA, Be Relaxed, Sol Surf, and Treat Me Sweet are now open mid concourse. Rock-N-Brews will be opening 01/07.

A new Nursing Room has been opened near gate 10 area. Signage has been placed at the other concourse restrooms directing passengers.

Coming up soon will be the barricading of Home Turf and the north Starbucks in anticipation of more new concessions and terminal layout.

Terminal 2

Passenger Boarding Bridge (PBB) 24A is currently being replaced and the gate is closed for use. The placement of the PBB, ramp striping, and gate fits will happen in the mid part of January.

Inside the concourse, work continues on the “guts” of the terminal. Numerous projects upgrading data, and electrical systems will continue through 2017.

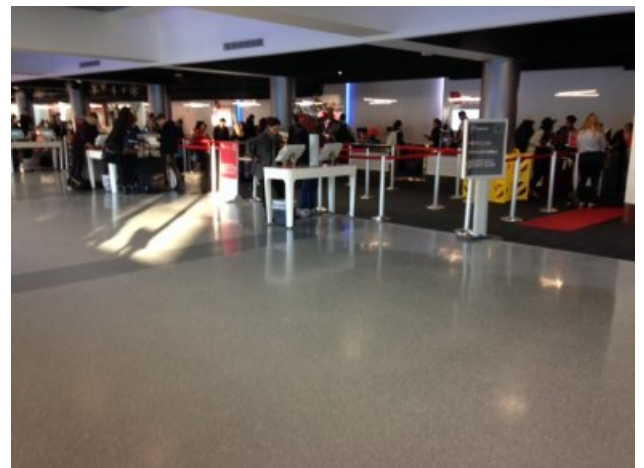

Barney’s Beanery has finally opened near gate 22. Pepita’s Cantina located on level 4 mezzanine level near the Virgin Atlantic Lounge will be starting work in the beginning of January. That work will continue through April. Also, the terminal’s currency exchange booths will be refreshed by February.

Terminal 3

A new Nursing Room has officially opened up in the concourse near gate 36. Accessible to all, the entrance is located in the women’s restroom hallway. Signage has been placed throughout the terminal.

Virgin America west ticketing project is complete, as well as their podium relocation in the concourse. Concourse wide PA system’s upgrades are still ongoing and the propose date for completion is in March.

Tom Bradley International Terminal

T4 FIS Connector Arrival Tunnel Open

Last month saw the opening of the T4 FIS connector tunnel to TBIT. AA passengers benefit from an easier transition from Terminal 4 to TBIT for FIS processing.

TBIT Construction Completion Projections

TBIT Construction Completion Projections

Following items are coming up sequentially for area turn over.

- Baggage Claim Carrousel 2 & 4 – End of January
- South Loading Dock – Mid February
- TBIT-T4 Connector Level 5 – End of February
- North Security Checkpoint – Beginning of March
- Baggage Claim Carrousel 1 & 3 – End of March
- North Loading Dock Area – Beginning of April

Other projects include:

Ramp Striping for TBIT Parking Plan. LAWA striping crew will begin hopefully next week after ramp is dry.

This will include all gate areas, Gate 122 lead-in line from taxiway D-10 and the Fire Control Room.

We will be updating the ground surface painted stop signs at the same time. Completion date TBA.

Also, Gate 123A ACAMS activation should be completed beyond the end of January. Currently, airlines are boarding through the glass doors of Gate 123B.

TBIT Lobby Clean-up

Airport Operations in conjunction with LAWA maintenance, are making a concerted effort to clean up departure lobby appearance. We are reaching out to community to assist with this endeavor. Please report any broken stanchion, chair, signage and unapproved furniture to emceneaney@lawa.org or work cell-310-431-884. Item will be removed and or repaired. Airport Operations will continue to conduct periodic inspections in stairwells, corridors and lobby areas.

South Terminals Update—T4, T5, T6, T7, & T8

Terminal 4 Connector

The T4 Connector Level 4 Walkway is scheduled to be completed by February 2016.

The Level 1 SSCP is scheduled to be done by May 2016. (TBIT Recheck into Terminal 4)

Terminal 4

Dunkin Donuts at Gate 45 is now open.

Terminal 6

Westfield Concessions now open:

MAC, TUMI, Market 8600, The Habit Burger, Wahoo's Fish Tacos, Starbuck's Evenings, See's Candies, M. Frederic, and Wolfgang Puck Food Court

Westfield Concessions under construction:

Osteria opens January 16, Point the Way Café expected June 2016, Access Hollywood expected February 2016, Starbucks in Arrivals expected later this year.

Alaska has installed updated ticketing kiosks in their check-in area.

Terminal 7

The T7 East Checkpoint is scheduled to close on January 12th, 2016. The checkpoint is closed due to the ongoing terminal 7 ticketing renovations. This phase of renovations are scheduled for completion in April 2016.

Central Terminal Area

Lyft Pick-ups Now Allowed at LAX

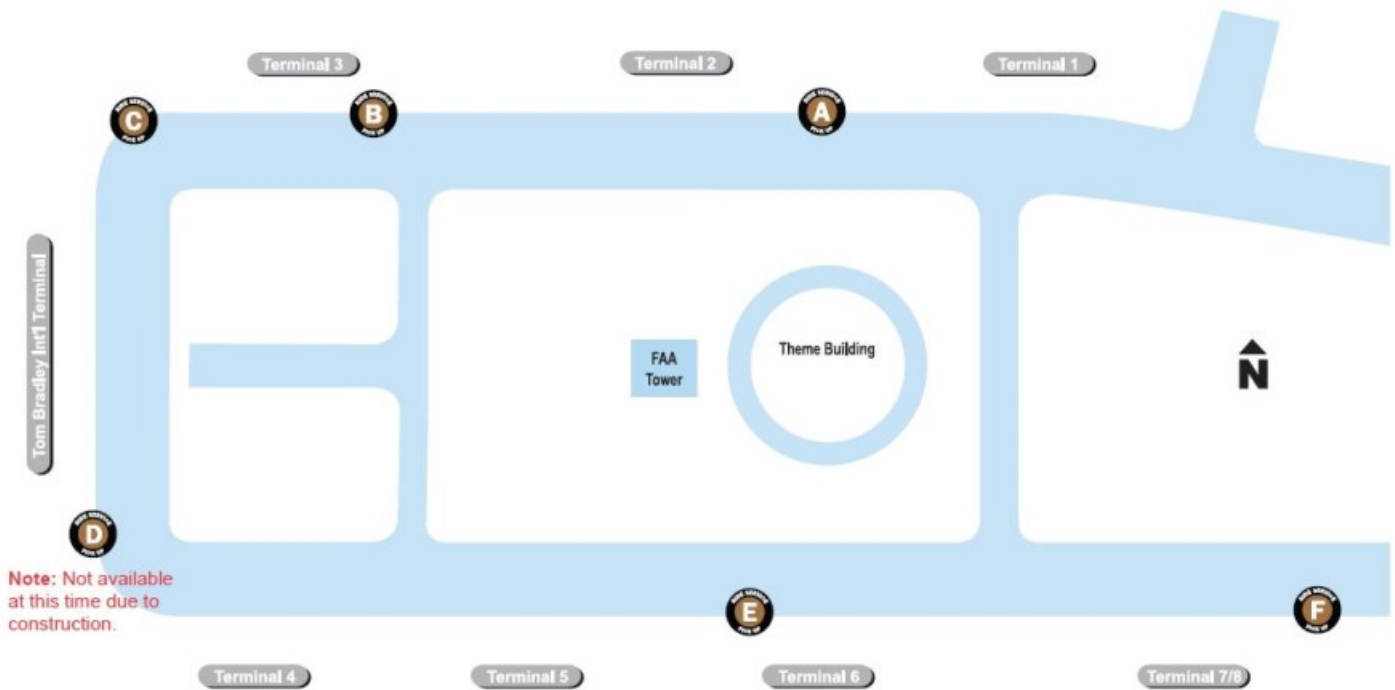

Lyft will begin pick-ups at LAX, making the rideshare company the first TNC to be licensed for this service at the airport, and expanding transportation options for travelers who already enjoy access to taxis, shuttles, and the popular FlyAway service.

-LAWA Press Release

Lyft only badged vehicles will be making pick-up's and drop-off's on the upper level central terminal area with the exception for our ADA guests. Through their app, the guest can indicate whether ADA pickup is requested on the lower level.

Security Reminder

Please remind all employees to not allow “piggy-backing” through ACAMS doors as well as the importance of conducting badge challenging.

Any employee is able to ask any other individual to view their badge. Police and TSA are not exempt from this, and are also required to show proper LAX Airport badging. When doing so, make sure you inspect all pertinent information on badge such as expiration date, photo, icons, etc.

Report any issues promptly to Airport Police.

If you or your team need more information or training, please don't hesitate to contact either Airport Police or LAWA Airport Operations.
